

RULES FOR THE LA FLAMA PRIZE

FEDERACIÓ DE JOVENTUTS MUSICALS DE CATALUNYA AND ACADÈMIA DE QUARTET DE VIC

In order to contribute to the promotion of new chamber music ensembles that appear in Catalonia and to help them along their professional path, Federació de Joventuts Musicals de Catalunya and the Acadèmia de Quartet de Vic in 2023 created the La Flama prize. This prize is awarded, for each of the categories, to the most promising chamber ensemble of the Academy, which is held in mid-July at L'Atlàntida de Vic, Osona's Performing Arts Centre.

The prize is aimed at stable chamber music ensembles with a minimum of two years' experience and at least one member who was born or musically trained in Catalonia.

With the support of Gerard Claret and the Federació de Joventuts Musicals de Catalunya, the teachers of the Acadèmia de Quartet, Abel Tomàs and Gerhard Quartet, will each choose the ensemble with the best outlook and growth potential from among those participating in the Quartet Academy.

The prize will consist of a first presentation concert at the Petit Palau of the Palau de la Música Catalana and a tour as part of the Xarxa de Músiques de Catalunya [Musical Youth Network of Catalonia] 2025-2026.

The organisation reserves the right to declare any prize void. If this should happen, the jury may award two prizes for the same category.
